FALL NEWSLETTER

Tutors Needed!

Tutors desperately needed! We will hold our fall tutor training classes on Wednesday afternoons in October. If you know someone who might be interested in participating, please have them call 203-576-7012 or email lwolfeiler@bridgeportpubliclibrary.org for the details.

Teaching Tip

One of our students recently told us about an app called “My Reading Words” that can be downloaded on a smartphone to learn sight words. Your students may want to try it too!

Immigration Attorney Presentation

Immigration Attorney, Michael Brown, will be speaking at St. John’s Church (768 Fairfield Ave) on Saturday, 10/6 at 11:30 am. He will present information to our students and tutors regarding immigration rights and laws. This event is free and open to everyone!

NEDP Graduates

Congratulations to Sharon and Catherine who completed the National External Diploma Program and received their diplomas this summer!

Adult Education graduation at the Klein

Tutoring Supplies Available

We recently received a much appreciated donation of school supplies from Congregation Beth El in Fairfield. If your students are in need of a notebook, pocket folder, lined paper, pencils or pens, please stop by the office and we will be happy to provide these.

New Citizens

Congratulations to Eunice and Emelien who recently became US Citizens!

Welcome New Tutors

We had 6 people participate in our summer tutor training class. Welcome to Angel, Julee, Lauren, Nancy, Anne and Cailey!

Learner's Permit

Finally, congratulations to Foto who passed his written learner's permit test! He has been studying diligently with the help of tutors Lauren Richard, Roy and Karen.
